

Dictionary and Thesaurus

This is an extract from a combined dictionary and thesaurus. The top half of the page is the dictionary; the bottom half is the thesaurus.

emotion → emotion
emotion NOUN emotions a strong feeling in the mind, such as love or hate emotional Adjective emotionally Adverb emperor NOUN emperors a man who rules an empire emphasis (em-fa-sis) NOUN emphases
1 special importance given to something
2 stress put on a word or part of a word > emphasize Verb
emphatic (im-fat-ik) ADJECTIVE using emphasis > emphatically ADVERB
empire NOUN empires 1 a group of countries controlled by one person or government 2 a large business organization controlled by one person or group employ VERB employs, employing, employed 1 pay a person to work for you 2 make use of enable VERB enables, enabling, enabled the means or ability to do something enamel NOUN enamels 1 a shiny substance coating metal 2 paint that dries hard and smooth 3 the hard shiny surface of teeth encamp VERB encamps, encamping, encamped settle in a camp encampment NOUN encampments a camp enchant VERB enchants, enchanting, enchanted 1 put someone under a magic spell 2 fill someone with intense delight > enchanter NOUN enchantment NOUN enchantress NOUN encircle VERB encircles, encircling, encircled surround > encirclement NOUN enclose VERB encloses, enclosing, enclosed 1 put a wall or fence round; shut in on all sides 2 put something into a box or envelope etc.

enclosure NOUN enclosures 1 enclosing 2 an enclosed area 3 something enclosed with a letter or parcel encore (on-kor) NOUN encores an extra item performed at a concert etc. after previous items have been applauded encounter VERB encounters, encountering, encountered 1 meet someone unexpectedly 2 experience • We encountered some difficulties.
encounter NOUN encounters 1 an unexpected meeting 2 a battle encourage VERB encourages, encouraging, encouraged 1 give confidence or hope; hearten 2 try to persuade; urge 3 stimulate; help to develop • We need to encourage healthy eating > encouragement NOUN

Thesaurus

empty VERB 1 No one had troubled to empty the washing machine. > unload, unplug, clear OPPOSITES ARE fill, load 2 He emptied the glass for a second time. > drain, exhaust, drink up
AN OPPOSITE IS fill
enable VERB 1 The new laws will enable individuals to own shares in these companies. > authorise, permit, allow, qualify, empower, equip, aid assist 2 Wells took time off to enable him to train twice a day. > allow, permit, let, help, make it possible for, provide the means for
AN OPPOSITE IS prevent
enchant VERB The scenery never ceased to enchant me > delight, please, captivate, bewitch, charm, entrance, enthral, mesmerize OPPOSITES ARE repel, disgust
enclose VERB A tall fence enclosed the garden.
 > surround, circle, encircle, bound, border, skirt, encompass, shut in, fence in, confine, contain 2 Please enclose payment with your order. 2 include, insert, put in encounter VERB 1 One day they encountered their friends > meet, run into, come across, chance on, (more informal) bump into 2 You may encounter a few problems.

emotion → emotion
emotion NOUN emotions a strong feeling in the mind, such as love or hate
emotional Adjective emotionally Adverb
emperor NOUN emperors a man who rules an empire
emphasis (em-fa-sis) NOUN emphases
1 special importance given to something
2 stress put on a word or part of a word
 > emphasize Verb
emphatic (im-fat-ik) ADJECTIVE using emphasis
 > emphatically ADVERB
empire NOUN empires 1 a group of countries controlled by one person or government 2 a large business organization controlled by one person or group
employ VERB employs, employing, employed 1 pay a person to work for you 2 make use of

empty VERB 1 No one had troubled to empty the washing machine. > unload, unplug, clear OPPOSITES ARE fill, load 2 He emptied the glass for a second time. > drain, exhaust, drink up
AN OPPOSITE IS fill
enable VERB 1 The new laws will enable individuals to own shares in these companies. > authorise, permit, allow, qualify, empower, equip, aid assist 2 Wells took time off to enable him to train twice a day. > allow, permit, let, help, make it possible for, provide the means for
AN OPPOSITE IS prevent
enchant VERB The scenery never ceased to enchant me > delight, please, captivate, bewitch, charm, entrance, enthral, mesmerize
OPPOSITES ARE repel, disgust
enclose VERB A tall fence enclosed the garden.
 > surround, circle, encircle, bound, border, skirt, encompass, shut in, fence in, confine, contain 2 Please enclose payment with your order. 2 include, insert, put in encounter VERB 1 One day they encountered their friends > meet, run into, come across, chance on, (more informal) bump into 2 You may encounter a few problems.

Thesaurus

emotion → emotion
emotion NOUN emotions a strong feeling in the mind, such as love or hate
emotional Adjective emotionally Adverb
emperor NOUN emperors a man who rules an empire
emphasis (em-fa-sis) NOUN emphases
1 special importance given to something
2 stress put on a word or part of a word
 > emphasize Verb
emphatic (im-fat-ik) ADJECTIVE using emphasis
 > emphatically ADVERB
empire NOUN empires 1 a group of countries controlled by one person or government 2 a large business organization controlled by one person or group
employ VERB employs, employing, employed 1 pay a person to work for you 2 make use of emotion NOUN He spoke with a voice full of emotion. > feeling, passion, sentiment, intensity, warmth, agitation, excitement, fervour AN OPPOSITE IS indifference emotional ADJECTIVE an emotional tribute > poignant, passionate, impassioned, intense, moving, touching, warm-hearted 2 an emotional woman > passionate, demonstrative, fervent, sensitive, temperamental, excitable, romantic emphasis NOUN This year there is a special emphasis given to creative writing.

 > importance, significance, prominence, priority, urgency, weight, stress, attention emphasize VERB The spokesman emphasized the need to remain calm. > stress, underline, focus on, highlight, point up, draw attention to, play up, make a point of OPPOSITES ARE understate, play down emphatic ADJECTIVE an emphatic refusal > absolute, firm, forceful, vehement, vigorous, definite, unequivocal, direct, positive, energetic, out-and-out employ VERB The business employs over a hundred people. > engage, hire, pay, take on, retain, use the services of, give work to,

Name: Class: Date:

1 What are the first and last entries in the dictionary section on page 228?

2 What are the first and last entries in the thesaurus section on page 228?

In the dictionary section, find the word “emphasis”.

3 How many different meanings are given for the word “emphasis”?

4 What is the plural of the word “emphasis”?

5 What job is done by the letters in brackets (em-fa-sis)?

6 Which verb can you make from the word “emphasis”?

In the thesaurus section, find the entry for “emphasis”.

7 What job is the sentence in italics doing?

8 Write out the sentence, replacing the word “emphasis” with an appropriate synonym from the words provided.

9 Having looked at these pages, explain the difference between a dictionary and a thesaurus. Use the following sentence models to help you.

a) A dictionary tells you ...

b) A thesaurus gives you ...

10 A dictionary and a thesaurus are usually two separate reference books. Can you see an advantage in putting them together like this?
